WHAT I BELIEVE AND WHY I DO WHAT I DO

I believe we all have magic within us and by accessing our magic we activate our ability to be the best healers and teachers for ourselves and others. Using intuitive guidance, spiritual practice, and storytelling I help people tap into their magic so they can heal, transform, and expand. I invite people into their own Big Life MAGIC.

It is my belief that our big life losses are the pathway to our big life magic, every loss or challenge offers a lesson and each lesson offers the opportunity to strengthen our energetic hearts and invite more love and in turn more magic into our lives.

This belief was developed and strengthened in my journey from single mother to grieving mother. In 2013 my son Sage, aged 11, unexpectedly died. The question I asked myself in the days following was; "Will my spiritual practice and all I know about healing be enough to keep my head above the waves of grief?" The answer I found was many layered and a resounding yes!
